STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

St. Ann's Automatic Offering Plan
Your contributions made easy

Many of our parishioners enjoy the convenience, safety and reliability of electronically paying household obligations. As a convenience to you, parishioners now have the option of selecting St. Ann's automatic Offering Plan as a method of making offertory contributions. It's safe, easy and absolutely free!

St. Ann's Automatic Offering Plan is similar to payment programs offered by banks and utility companies. Your contributions are automatically withdrawn from checking or savings accounts at any bank or credit union, or charged to your credit card. It's 100% safe. No one but you has access to your account and nothing can be withdrawn or charged without your authorization. You can change or cancel your contribution by simply sending written notice to St. Ann Church.

If you have any questions, please contact Gloria Davidson in the parish office at (561)832-3757 or by e-mail: saintannchurch1@msn.com

Divorced Catholics and Church Annulments

Sometimes a couple would like to get married in the Church but one of the parties is divorced after having participated in a previous Church marriage. This prevents them from having a Catholic ceremony. However, there is a possibility that the divorced person's previous Church marriage can be annulled. Some situations require only simple paperwork before a new Catholic wedding can take place. For more information, call Jerry/Kathy Jennings (561) 255-0075.

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings and Questions for Faith Sharing

Each week, we ask parents to reflect on the "Faith Sharing" questions with their children. This is a very simple way to make the Sunday Scripture readings come alive for you and them, to point out how God is with us in our ordinary experience.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time August 29, 2010 (The Virtue of Humility)

Reading I: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29
(Humble Yourself)

Reading II: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24
(Approaching Mount Zion)

Gospel: Luke 14:1,7-14
(The Humble Will Be Exalted)

Question for Adults: In what ways do I practice the virtue of humility? How might I be more humble in the coming weeks?

Questions for Children: What can I do to make others feel valued and welcome during the coming weeks?

Message

When a person tries to act in accordance with his or her conscience, when he tries to speak the truth, when he tries to behave like a citizen, even in conditions where citizenship is degraded, it won't necessarily lead anywhere, but it might...Even a purely moral act that has no hope of any immediate and visible effect can gradually and indirectly, over time, gain in political significance.

- Vaclav Havel
